Prayer: Second Sunday in Lent: Opportunity to Guide

Acts 6:30-31 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, “Do you understand what you are reading?” And he said, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him.

Heavenly Father, as we look to You on this second Sunday in the season of Lent, we continue to think of our own spiritual growth. We are grateful that there were other Christians around us to lead and guide us as we studied Your Word. We ask now for the opportunity to help guide someone else, someone who is seeking but does not understand. Just as You took Philip to the man who was reading Isaiah 53, take us to someone who needs guidance in learning about Your son Jesus and what He did for the world. Make this season a season of hope for someone who needs Jesus most. We pray in the name of Jesus, amen.
