

When the Spirit Moves- “Giving It All”

Mark 5:21-34

21 When Jesus had crossed again by boat to the other side, many people gathered to Him. And He was beside the sea. 22 One of the rulers of the synagogue, named Jairus, saw Jesus and came and fell at His feet 23 and earnestly asked Him, “My little daughter is lying at the point of death. I ask You, come and lay Your hands on her, so that she may be healed. And she will live.” 24 So Jesus went with him. And many people followed Him and pressed in on Him. 25 And a certain woman had a hemorrhage for twelve years, 26 and had suffered much under many physicians. She had spent all that she had, and was not better but rather grew worse. 27 When she had heard of Jesus, she came in the crowd behind Him and touched His garment. 28 For she said, “If I may touch His garments, I shall be healed.” 29 And immediately her hemorrhage dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction. 30 At once, Jesus knew within Himself that power had gone out of Him. He turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My garments?” 31 His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing against You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’ ” 32 And He looked around to see her who had done it. 33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the entire truth. 34 He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction.”

Call to Worship

Leader: With friends and strangers, with family and neighbors, we gather:

People: Come among us, Healing God, with that love which never ends.

Leader: With faith reaching out to touch, with hearts straining to trust, we hope:

People: Come among us, Friend of the broken, with your compassion which makes us whole.

Leader: With word and wonder, with silence and song, we wait:

People: Come among us, our healer, to lift us to our feet to follow you.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys (Song of Solomon 2:1)

"Jesus, Rock of Ages let me hid in Thee, Jesus, Rose of Sharon, sweet Thou art to me; Lily of the Valley, Bright and Morning Star, Fairest of ten thousand to my soul". (Charles F. Weigle)

He will never, never leave me, nor yet forsake me here, while I live by faith and do His blessed will. (Charles Fry)

Father, today we give thanks for Your Son Jesus. He is the Rock of Ages, the Clef of the Rock where we can hide when we need help and encouragement. His beauty and majesty are beyond compare, for He is the Fairest of ten thousand to the soul of every believer. We know that we sometimes forsake Him for our own desires, for the things of the world, but He will never leave us, nor forsake us, and for this we lift our hands in gratitude and adoration. Thank You Jesus for being our Lord and Savior, amen.
