

Born to Trouble- “Real Life, Real Questions”

Job 1:8-22

8 And the Lord said to the Adversary, “Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and an upright man, who fears God, and avoids evil?”

9 Then the Adversary answered the Lord, saying, “Has Job feared God for nothing? 10 Have You not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. 11 But stretch out Your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse You to Your face.”

12 The Lord said to the Adversary, “Look, all that he has is in your power; only do not stretch out your hand against his person.”

So the Adversary departed from the presence of the Lord.

13 So a day came when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house, 14 and a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys were feeding beside them, 15 and the Sabeans attacked them, and took them away, and they killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and only I alone have escaped to tell you.”

16 While he was still speaking, another came and said, “The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

17 While he was still speaking, another came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three companies and made a raid on the camels and have taken them away. They killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

18 While he was still speaking, another came and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house, 19 and suddenly a great wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

20 Then Job stood up, tore his robe, and shaved his head. He fell to the ground and worshipped. 21 He said,

“Naked I came from my mother’s womb,
and naked will I return there.

The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away;
blessed be the name of the Lord.”

22 In all this Job did not sin, and he did not accuse God of wrongdoing.

Prayer: Trust

O God, our God, how excellent is Your name on all the earth. Father, we call on You today to remember us in these perilous days. Remind us again of Your promise to those who believe on Your Son Jesus. We again remember the words of the Psalmist:

“The Lord knows the days of the upright, and their inheritance shall be forever. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time, and in the days of famine, they shall be satisfied.

But the wicked shall perish; and the enemies of the Lord, like the splendor of the meadows, shall vanish. Into smoke they shall vanish away.” Psalm 37:18-20 NKJV

We thank You for that blessed hope that is Jesus Christ. Enable us to always trust in that hope. It is in His name we pray, amen.
