Invocation

Call to Worship

(Minister) We come, for God gathers us here, with that community called faith:

(People) where the hungry are served first, where the thirsty drink life's water.

(Minister) We come, for God welcomes us here into that home called grace:

(People) where the naked are clothed in robes of hope; where the stranger is embraced as the long-lost prodigal.

(Minister) We come, for God reunites us here, sisters and brothers in that family called love:

(People) where the imprisoned model justice, where the sick are cradled in God's peace.

Prayer: Harvest

Galatians 6:7-10 Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant. Those who live only to satisfy their own sinful nature will harvest decay and death from that sinful nature. But those who live to please the Spirit will harvest everlasting life from the Spirit. So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up. Therefore, whenever we have the opportunity, we should do good to everyone—especially to those in the family of faith. (NLT)

Heavenly Father, thank You for justification and salvation simply by faith in Jesus alone. We know that we cannot earn our salvation, however, our work demonstrates our faith. We truly want to live in a way that pleases the Spirit for we desire a harvest of everlasting life. Give us the faith, the strength, the courage to always do the right thing without giving up. We pray for a harvest of blessing.

As we think of Thanksgiving, we remember all You have done for us this past year. Yes, these last nine months have been extremely difficult in so many ways. However, on this day of thanks, we want to remember the words of the writer to the Hebrew Christians: “Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name.” *

We offer our petitions and praise in the name of Jesus our savior, amen.

*Hebrews 13:15 (NKJV)
