

Transition Part 5
“The Lord of Transition”
Joshua 5:13-6:5

3 Once when Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing before him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went to him and said to him, “Are you one of us, or one of our adversaries?” 4 He replied, “Neither; but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.” And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and he said to him, “What do you command your servant, my lord?” 5 The commander of the army of the LORD said to Joshua, “Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy.” And Joshua did so. 6 Now Jericho was shut up inside and out because of the Israelites; no one came out and no one went in. 7 The LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have handed Jericho over to you, along with its king and soldiers. 8 You shall march around the city, all the warriors circling the city once. Thus you shall do for six days, 9 with seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark. On the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, the priests blowing the trumpets. 10 When they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, as soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and all the people shall charge straight ahead.”

Remember to be faithful with your tithes and offerings.

9 Honor the Lord with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce;
10 then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.

Prayer: Students, Teachers, Staff, Parents

Matthew 19:13-14 One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so he could lay his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples scolded the parents for bothering him. But Jesus said, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who are like these children.”

Father, almighty God, God of hosts and Sovereign of the universe, we come to You with heavy hearts when we think of our students, teachers, staff and parents as they begin this new school year. We ask all the usual – help with learning and teaching, guidance in dealing with problems, safety in travel and in the classroom.

But Father, there is another issue this year – an illness that is in our land that is causing so many new concerns for those in school: some students are physically in the class room, some are studying in a virtual classroom apart from friends and teachers. This illness brings a certain uneasiness – give peace to all as they begin this year. We pray for the school administrators as they make decisions asking for wisdom and understanding for each of them.

We thank You today for what You will do for and in our schools.
We pray in Jesus name, amen.
